Tabu Lounge and Sports Bar was created to serve one of the most diverse neighborhoods in Philadelphia. A sports bar alongside a lounge both serving some of the finest local craft beers and comfort food was designed with you, our customer, in mind. If sports is not on your to do list, head upstairs to our lounge, where you'll enjoy comfortable seating and an inviting atmosphere. Our upstairs lounge will host numerous events throughout the week.

12th STREET GYM
 12th Street Gym: Offering day memberships, this sprawling 60,000-square-foot gym is certainly where you'll find all the fit boys (and boys who like looking at fit boys while pretending to work out). The gym offers an array of classes, top-of-the-line equipment, pool, spa and roof deck—as well as access to SoBi, for those who need to tan on the go.

KNOCK
 Knock: You'll find creative New American cuisine (as well as many movers and shakers from the LGBT community) at this hot spot. While the mahogany décor and grand piano give off a serious, sophisticated vibe, you're just as likely to find regulars casually hanging out at the bar.

ALEXANDER INN
 Alexander Inn: This top-rated boutique hotel is Philly's only gay-owned and operated hotel. In addition to its excellent location, the Inn offers modern guestrooms, food daily rates, free breakfast buffet, 24-hour fitness room, in-room safes, and free Wi-Fi throughout.

WILLIAM WAY COMMUNITY CENTER
 William Way Community Center: A cornerstone of the Philadelphia's gay community since 1974, the center offers community services and cultural, educational, social and recreational programs. It's named after Bill Way, a former gay activist and city employee who dedicated his life to building affordable housing.

GIOVANNI'S ROOM
 Giovanni's Room: In the age of Barnes & Noble and Amazon.com, this niche bookstore is a gem. The oldest gay and lesbian bookstore in the country, it boasts an extensive collection of LGBT and feminist books and frequently welcomes highly regarded authors.
